Looks like you can only log in if you already have an account. Another review from last February says this was fixed. There is still no way to create an account.

A Polyakov ★★★★★ January 6, 2020
Cant register. It asks for 6 digit code, but on email only confirmation letter comes without this code

Charles Hendricks ★★★★★ February 12, 2018
First screen on app is a login screen. No where to sign up or create new account. I literally can't do anything with this app.

Crystal Brothers ★★★★★ January 18, 2018
Not free. I used my internet to download this free app only to find that it costs $10/month to use it.

It's pretty impressive just how much I'm able to do with this app in terms of optimizing my planning and organizing. To me, it's very comprehensive. I'm able to organize my life into categories and from there into subcategories even. I'm also able to prioritize everything with ease. The two features...

I used to have a hard time keeping track of things so TickTick is a miracle. It's so easy to use and I love how I can use it on all of my devices. I use it literally every day on everything from calendar invites to work tasks to even things I need to do around the house. I recommend it to everybody.
